

Join Us

The Mayor and Council Members of Kensington Invite YOU...

ULI PRESENTATION Thursday, November 13th at 5 pm

After two days of problem-solving, the Urban Land Institute Panelists will present their finding and recommendations. Everyone is invited and time will be allotted for discussion.

FINANCIAL INVESTOR FORUM Sunday, December 7th at 4:30

Get an overview of how financial advisors are regulated and the kinds of questions you should ask before selecting an advisor to help you in today's turbulent markets. Sponsored by the Town and Maryland Delegates Al Carr and Jeff Waldstreicher (both of Kensington), Maryland Securities Commissioner Melanie Lubin and Town resident Duane Thompson, managing director of the Financial Planning Association and a Board member of the Jump$tart Coalition, a nonprofit financial literacy organization.

TREE LIGHTING PARTY Sunday, December 7th at 5:30 pm

Hot Cider * Cookies * Musical Entertainment *Holiday Tree Lighting *
A Visit from Santa on his red fire engine (the sleigh is in the shop!)

ALSO:

Trash Pick Up will be moved to Tuesdays and Leaf Collection will be on Mondays. Recycling continues on Wednesdays.
(This is a pilot program).

Town Council Meetings Mondays, November 10 & 24 7 p.m.

M-NCPPC Open Office Hours Wednesdays, November 5 & 19 6:30-8 pm

To Come together for an event-filled
Holiday Season
In Town

THE TOWN OF KENSINGTON'S
AROUND TOWN
JOURNAL
NOVEMBER 2008

3710 MITCHELL STREET, KENSINGTON, MARYLAND
301-949-2424 FAX: 301-949-4925 WWW.TOK.MD.GOV

To Our Kensington Neighbors

Happy Thanksgiving! Let's Give Back Every Day.

Donate blankets, sheets and towels for our furry friends waiting adoption at the Montgomery County Humane Society.

Donate canned goods for our hungry neighbors at The Shepherd's Table, which just served its 1 Million-ith meal to the needy.

Bring items to Town Hall Mon-Fri, 8 am-4 pm